2012 TOLEDO CHEESE DAYS ACTIVITIES

11 a.m. TOLEDO CHEESE DAYS PARADE

This year's parade theme is "Chuggin' Thru Toledo". Parade marshals: The Big Cheeses: Glenn Thompson, Sandy Miller and Allen & Sandra Trafton. Parade registration at Toledo Middle School. All parade entries are assigned assembly and dispersal plans. Children are assigned a special place near the head of the parade.

Parade route starts at 5th & Augustus Street. Go east on Augustus to 2nd, south on 2nd to Oak, then west on Oak to 5th. Ribbons will be presented to the 1st and 2nd place winners in all divisions of the parade. The judges will be at the Presbyterian Church to decide upon the winners and present ribbons. It usually takes the judges up to one hour to determine the winners.

Crowd Control: Safety is our biggest concern. We have be come increasingly concerned with children getting too close to the wheels of parade vehicles while chasing candy thrown by parade participants. Parents are asked to please help by keeping a close watch on their youngsters. In addition, the drivers of large trucks & other dangerous vehicles have been instructed not to throw candy from their vehicles.

The Toledo Lions will police the main areas of the parade route to attempt to keep children from getting into dangerous areas. Toledo Boy Scouts will be selling pop.
